

lyrics for "you (supi's song)" i'm drawing you out so you will not let go time moves slow when you're all alone i'm drawing you out cause i don't want the other i don't want for us to lose each other makes me shudder

i'm calling your phone but i just hear a robot i've left a million messages what choice have i got i stopped by your home with your books in my backpack even though i never find you there i still want you back

if you hear this call me
tell me that you'll hear me out i'm drawing you out because i'm drawing you out the cat's been let out the cards are on the table baby it's been years, it's been so many tears if you want to talk it out then i'll be here
